PRICE FIVE CENTS

FOUR INJURED IN SERIES OF AUTO CRASHES

Four persons were injured in accidents at Heidlersburg and Guldens, according to state police. Three were hurt at 2:10 o'clock this morning when autos operated by John E. Sheely, 19, Mechanicsburg R. 3, and David Copenharver, 43, Hanover R. 3, collided five miles east of here at the intersection of the Lincoln Highway and the Guldens Station Rd.

State police said Copenharver was traveling east on the Lincoln Highway and slowed his vehicle preparatory to turning into the Guldens Station Rd.

Three Are Treated
Another car following Copenharver also slowed, police said. They said Sheely attempted to slow, was unsuccessful, passed the second car in the line successfully by running off on the right berm of the highway, then struck the right side of the Copenharver auto. Damage was estimated at $200 to Sheely's car and $250 to Copenharver's vehicle.

Removed to the Warner Hospital by a motorist, Sheely was treated for bruises of the body and cuts of the head. Two passengers in his car were also treated. Bernie Sagninen, 18, Lincoln University, for a bruised forehead and knees and David F. Hess, 19, Doylestown, for cuts of the head and face.

Driver Charged
Donald Hale, 20, Toronto, Canada, was injured and arrested as a result of the accident at Heidlersburg at 5:45 o'clock Friday night.

State police said Hale was removed following the accident to the office of Dr. William Flickinger in York Springs, where he was treated for lacerations of the right hand and face. He was taken to the physician by a passing motorist, Rodney Peters, York Springs R. 2. Later Hale was taken by police before Justice of the Peace Roy Martin, Gettysburg R. 4, where he paid a fine of $10 and costs for driving too fast for conditions.

According to state police Hale was driving south when he came upon the Heidlersburg intersection. Ralph E. Garber, 19, York Springs R. 1, was driving a Miller's Motor Freight of York truck west toward Biglerville. Police said the tractor-trailer had cleared the Harrisburg Rd. at the intersection when Hale, going south, came over the hill, saw the truck, braked, and his car swerved to the west and struck the rear of the trailer. Damage was $15 to the trailer. Hale's 1959 car was demolished.

Marian F. The Chambersburg Art Club has been invited to meet with the Adams County group for the program. A board meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock, preceding the regular meeting.

He missed the dog but his swerving truck struck a power line pole, snapping service lines the pole carried although the pole was not broken off, Borough Officer Wilmer Law told The Gettysburg Times.

The northern part of town was without current for an hour or more and low hanging electric wires partially blocked the street until Potomac Edison Co. workmen repaired the damage.

Four Littlestown residents were fatally injured and a Hanover R. D. man was seriously hurt when their cars collided at 11:35 o'clock Friday night a mile west of Hanover, near Mt. Pleasant, on the Littlestown Rd.

Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said Mrs. Helene Bowers, 61, of 508 S. Queen St., Littlestown, and Mrs. Alma Tressler, 68, of 502 S. Queen St., Littlestown, were killed instantly, Mrs. Bowers by a fractured skull and broken neck and Mrs. Tressler by a broken neck and crushed chest.

Hanover Man Unconscious

Harry Emanuel Bowers, 61, 509 S. Queen St., Littlestown, husband of Mrs. Helene Bowers, died at 12:30 o'clock this morning at the Hanover Hospital. Dr. Vincent P. Pisula, deputy York County coroner, said his death was caused by a crushed chest and fractured skull.

Miss Lillie Harner, 61, 3 Park Ave., Littlestown, died of chest injuries, head injuries and fractures of both legs, Dr. Pisula said, while she was on the operating table at 2:30 o'clock this morning in the Hanover Hospital as surgeons sought vainly to save her life.

Luther H. Nace, 21, Hanover R. 1, is unconscious at the Hanover Hospital. State police said he has neck and back injuries and is in a serious condition.

According to the officers, the accident occurred when a car operated by Bowers, in which the three women were passengers was headed west toward Littlestown. Dr. Crist said he understood the party of four was headed home from a bingo game.

Lost Control On Curve

Nace, state police said, was driving west when he lost control of his car on a curve and it skidded on the wet highway. The rear end of the Nace vehicle struck the front of the Bowers auto.

The Bowers car was demolished, with the damage estimated at $800. Damage to the Nace vehicle was $350.

McSherrystown and Hanover Fire Co. ambulances removed the injured from the scene of the accident and then picked up additional injured in an auto accident which occurred at about the same moment at the other end of Mt. Pleasant.

Second Crash Nearby

While the Bowers-Nace accident was occurring just east of the village of Mt. Pleasant, a car operated by Mrs. Francis P. Smith, Hanover R. D., an expectant mother, and a station wagon driven by Paul Lauer, 30, York Springs R. 1, collided on the slippery highway at the west end of the village. Lauer was admitted as a patient at the Hanover Hospital with a deep cut on the forehead and a broken right shoulder. Mrs. Smith was treated at the hospital for a cut chin. A child with her escaped injury.

Following the accidents fire police from McSherrystown and Pennville were called to direct traffic until the wreckage of the two crashes, a few hundred feet apart, could be cleared from the highway.

The accident brought to 22 the number of persons killed on Adams County highways so far this year.

Here are six quick tips from the National Safety Council on how to be a better winter driver:

1. Winterize not only your car, but your driving technique and your attitude, as well. Normal speeds often are too fast for winter conditions. When weather's bad, slow down.
2. Have good tires — preferably snow tires — and for more severe conditions, use reinforced tire chains.
3. Keep windshield and windows clear, and wiper blades, heater and defroster in proper operating condition.
4. Get the feel of the road as soon as you start out (but away from hazards or other cars). By cautiously trying your brakes or gently pressing your accelerator, you can learn how slippery the road surface is. Then adjust your speed accordingly.
5. Keep well back of the vehicle ahead to give yourself plenty of room for an emergency stop. Following too closely is doubly dangerous on winter roads.
6. Pump your brakes to stop quickly on icy roads. Jamming on the brakes will throw the car into an uncontrollable skid. The trick is to slow the car by rapid and intermittent brake applications and at the same time maintain rolling traction that gives steering control.

"There's nothing much you can do about winter weather — except be prepared for it," the National Safety Council

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — French President Charles de Gaulle, iron-willed at 68, acts like a man determined, if he has to, to take over the leadership of the West. He has already asserted a lot of it.

This week the Frenchman, so proud he dislikes using reading glasses in public, dictated to his Western partners and the Soviet Union the time and conditions for a summit conference.

At an extraordinary news conference De Gaulle, who heads a second-rate power but persists in thinking of it in terms of grandeur, put on an amazing show of memory, calmness and strength.

"Sooner The Better"
British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's attitude toward a summit meeting has been: The sooner the better. President Eisenhower and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev have seemed to favor such a meeting sooner rather than later.

But De Gaulle, after taking over a sagging France and giving it more stability than it has had since World War II, decided by himself that haste was unwise. He even put a stiff "if" on any summit conference at all.

Before there's a summit, he said, he must meet with Khrushchev in March; there must be an improvement in the international climate and the Western partners must be agreed on how to deal with Khrushchev.

Asks Other Meetings
And, just to be sure, he told Eisenhower and Macmillan his pre-summit get-together with them in December should be followed by another after he talks with Khrushchev in March.

This is only part of his statements at the news conference. They ranged from pensions for French veterans of World War I to a prediction the Chinese Communists would ultimately be their Soviet friends' greatest peril.

Associated Press Women's Editor

"And so the brave prince slew the dragon, rescued the beautiful princess, carried her away to his castle and they were married and lived happily ever after."

American young people have been reading too many fairy tales, says David Mace, founder of marriage counseling services in Britain, now a visiting professor of family study at the University of Pennsylvania. The concentration of movies, television and current romantic fiction is that the altar is the goal of every girl and boy, and is the gateway to lifelong bliss.

Sometimes the bride and groom do not live happily ever after, says Dr. Mace, writing in a new pamphlet, "What Makes a Marriage Happy?" published by the Public Affairs Committee. And the main reason is that neither partner tries hard enough.

Often the honeymoon is over when Mary first sees John tousled, unshaven and grouchy, before his first cup of coffee in the morning. Or when John sees Mary at bedtime with greasy cream on her face and her hair up in curlers. Or when John forgets to kiss Mary good-by in the morning. Or when Mary telephones John in the middle of a business conference to ask if he loves her.

No Fairy Story

Life isn't a fairy story, points out the professor. And two young people starting out to make a new life together represent only the raw materials out of which a happy marriage can be achieved.

So what does it take to make a happy marriage? Well, says the professor, if you can answer yes to the following questions you can consider yourself happily married:

1. Are you good companions?
2. Do you settle your arguments by mutual adjustment?
3. Would you choose each other again?
4. Do you approve of marriage generally as a satisfactory way of life?
5. Do you consider your marriage happier than most?
6. Are you willing to give and take?
7. Do you think of yourselves as "we" instead of "you" and "I"?

Education Week

The following article was prepared by the Adams County branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association in connection with Education Week.

"In the United States today, over a million men and women are engaged in the profession of building better citizens through education. About one-fifth of our population is in elementary or secondary schools. Due to this large enrollment, about five openings exist for every new public school teacher. By 1960, when our population is expected to be at least 175,000,000, the need is foreseen for 80,000 new elementary teachers, 50,000 more high school teachers, and 5,000 school executives.

"This modern teacher wants to create within the child a desire for learning that lasts as long as life itself. Molding the characters of your folks makes each hour a challenging experience. The good teacher has these four basic qualities: 1. A strong desire to learn; 2. A strong desire to teach; 3. An interest in people, especially young people; 4. Good character.

No Wasted Minutes

"There are not many minutes wasted in a teacher's day. Lessons must be planned so that they will be of the utmost interest and simplicity. The class presentation must be stimulating and kept within time limits. Tests are to be devised and papers checked. A class or club may need an adviser or coach. During after-school hours, there is work with Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, service clubs, home extension groups, church activities, Parent-Teacher Associations, teacher professional meetings — on the local, state or national level — and acting as camp counselors. And naturally it is a teacher's duty to himself and his students to study and prepare the subject he teaches and keep building his own general knowledge and character through reading, hobbies, meeting people, and travel.

"Just about everybody knows that the teaching profession does not lead to great wealth. Why, then, are one million people teaching in our public schools?"

"There are satisfactions to teaching beyond anything which can be measured in dollars and cents. For teaching is a career chosen by many who have deep spiritual and ethical convictions, belief in their own competence, and an unusual ability for getting along well with others — particularly youngsters. Some find reward enough in watching and helping a young mind find itself, in having an exciting part in the awakening of self-confidence and ability. Sometimes it is a child's comment, perhaps once in a year or once in a life-time, which convinces a teacher that there is no finer or more satisfying profession.

Military Vote Changes Results

The count of the military vote Friday afternoon added a few more to the margins of the victors. However, in one instance two soldiers' votes changed the winner.

In Straban Twp., Richard E. Kammerer had 324 votes, to 323 for Herbert E. Zepp, two soldiers voted for Zepp, none for Kammerer and as a result Zepp is the winner 325 to 324.

HARD-BITTEN REVOLUTIONIST TO HEAD ARMY

HAVANA (AP) — A hard-bitten revolutionist took over command of Cuba's army today as the island republic began a week of mourning for his missing predecessor, Maj. Camilo Cienfuegos.

Maj. Juan Almeida's appointment as army chief of staff followed a quick series of government moves Friday.

U. S. charges that "deliberate and concerted efforts" are being made to wreck American - Cuban relations were rejected by Cuba. Formal notice was given that all but 1,650 acres of the 38,000-acre Becerra Ranch — controlled by the King Ranch of Texas — will be expropriated by the government. The ranch was given until Sunday to select the acreage it wants to keep.

Disappeared October 28

Cienfuegos, one of the most popular figures in Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime, disappeared on a plane trip from Camaguey to Havana Oct. 28. Castro directed an unsuccessful search for his army commander and said in a TV speech early Friday that Cienfuegos presumably had crashed in the Atlantic.

Almeida, one of the original band who helped Castro launch his revolt against President Fulgencio Batista three years ago, formerly was air force chief.

said. "Snow and ice, combined with early darkness, frequent snowstorms and spattered windshields, help cause the high auto death and injury toll in the winter."

The council cited these revealing facts:

1. In one out of six fatal auto accidents, the weather is rainy, foggy or snowy.
2. In one out of four fatal auto accidents, the road is wet, snowy, icy or muddy.
3. In fatal auto accidents in which the driver's vision is obstructed, rain, snow or sleet on the car windshield crop up in two out of five instances.

"Seat belts, a must whenever you drive," the council said, "are especially valuable in winter."

"But nothing," it emphasized, "protects a driver as much as being prepared for the added hazards of winter driving."

7 ASTRONAUTS TAKE TIME OFF

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's seven Astronauts and their wives are in New York for a weekend of relaxation.

"We just came in to spend a weekend, see a couple of shows and have dinner," said Capt. Donald K. Slayton, 35, of Sparta, Wis. Slayton arrived Friday with his wife and four other Astronauts and their wives. Two other Astronauts and their wives had arrived earlier.

Slayton was asked by newsmen if the Astronauts are confident they can travel into space and return safely to earth.

"One hundred per cent," he replied. "Oh, hell, yes. There's no doubt about it."

ROGER TOUHY WILL LEAVE PEN AFTER 25 YEARS

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—Roger Touhy, soon to be released from Stateville Prison after serving 25 years for a kidnapping he said he did not commit, is not bitter.

"I hold no grudge, and I'm not looking for revenge," the 61-year-old former Chicago gangster said Friday night. "I'm not bitter. I just want to get out of here."

Earlier Friday Touhy, known as "The Terrible" in the prohibition era when he was a gang leader with a working agreement with the old Al Capone gang, was granted a parole. Officials said he will leave Stateville as soon as his prospective home and employment have been checked, probably in a week or 10 days.

Grateful For Mercy
Touhy, crippled, slight and gray, smiled as he talked to reporters about his parole.

"All I want is to live in peace for the few years left for me," Touhy said. "I will be thankful for the rest of my life for the mercy already shown me by the governor and the (Parole and Pardon) Board."

He was convicted and sentenced to 99 years in 1934 for the kidnapping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor, a one-time confidence man and now a California real estate dealer. He was given an additional 199-year sentence in 1942 for escaping from Stateville with six other convicts. He was recaptured after 83 days.

with them," he said.

"Here this free atmosphere is no doubt very charming, but I think that it has one disadvantage. Students are distracted. They cannot concentrate on their studies," the Asian student said.

He did, however, call the opportunity to pick a good marriage partner through frequent contact with the opposite sex a "big advantage."

Impressed By Dorms
He was much impressed by the dormitory system at Gettysburg College. By contrast most of the 2,700 students at Holkar commute from the city. Indian coeds always live at home with their families, he said.

"Though professors in America treat students as their friends, the students are not respectful towards them," Shyamkant observed.

"When a professor comes into the class here nobody stands up to pay him respect. Asking or answering questions, students remain seated in full comfort. If a student is late in coming to class he does not ask the professor's permission to enter. At Holkar College we did the reverse in each case."

Philosophical Conclusion
"But despite these many differences, which sometimes make me feel strange and somewhat lost, the atmosphere of a college is basically the same all over the world. These are the golden days in our lives."

"We have to study, to learn and enjoy as much as we can, for once these days are gone they will never come again," said Shyamkant, S. Akolekar, from Indore, India, a freshman at Gettysburg College.

BIG UNMANNED DIESEL RUNS WILD 22 MILES

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Railroad officials tried to find out today exactly what made a 123-ton locomotive run loose through the night for 22 miles.

The unmanned diesel was caught by another locomotive that raced ahead and maneuvered itself into a coupling with the runaway, at 50 miles an hour.

The locomotive, left untended, slipped out of the Jersey Central Railroad yards late Thursday night. The throttling giant built up breakneck speed as it hurtled along the rails, which were cleared by frantic dispatchers plotting the runaway's progress.

"The situation had awful possibilities," said Engineer Chester Gudmundson, 58, the man who finally caught it.

Call For Probe
"I've never had an experience like that before, and I hope to God I never will again," said Fireman Harold Johns, 45, who helped him.

The railroad line called for an immediate investigation. A spokesman said testimony taken Friday was under study.

One train crew apparently walked away from No. 1706, a drill locomotive, before another crew reported. The dispatcher's office discovered the error, but it was too late. No. 1706 was on the road.

Johns, who went back to the halted runaway at Sayreville, said he didn't know whether he would find a dead engineer slumped to the floor or a fallen piece of equipment pinning the throttle.

He found nothing but an empty cab, filled with the odor of burning rubber from the hot hand brake, and an open throttle. He shut off the throttle.

COLD AND WET WAVE MOVING TOWARD EAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It was cold, wet, and generally miserable across wide areas in the Eastern two thirds of the country today as a mid-November storm that pounded the Rockies moved eastward and southward.

It looked like a rough day for football fans.

The snow appeared diminishing as it moved into the Midwest, but amounts up to seven inches covered the ground in western Illinois. Earlier in Montana the storm dumped up to two feet of snow and sent temperatures as low as 42 below zero.

The Arctic air dipped southward to the Rio Grande in western Texas and headed Southeastward into the Ohio Valley and lower Great Lakes region.

Rain Slicks Highways
Freezing rain slicked highways in southwest Texas where temperatures dropped into the 30s. A narrow belt of freezing rain or drizzle spread across east central Missouri and central Illinois to northwest Indiana.

North of the sleet area, snow or snow flurries fell from eastern Iowa and northern Illinois into lower Michigan and northward to Lake Superior and to the Red River Valley of the north.

Scattered light showers sprinkled areas east of the Appalachians from northeast Georgia into New England.

The stormy weather and unseasonable cold have been blamed for at least 21 deaths, including 8 in Montana, 7 in Illinois, 5 in Iowa and 1 in Kansas. Driving conditions were reported extremely hazardous in many parts of the country hit by snow and freezing rain.

The cold air from the Rockies tumbled temperatures 15 to 35 degrees lower than Friday morning in the plains. The 20 below zero at Valentine, Neb., was a new record low for November.

President Plans Conference Between Management, Union On Ways Of Settling Strikes

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has taken a step toward calling a White House conference of management and union leaders. The agenda: New ways of settling strikes as crippling as the steel walkout.

A labor spokesman said Friday night that the President had asked President George Meany of the AFL-CIO to discuss the matter with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell.

Meany had proposed the conference in a letter to the President. Excerpts from the letter and the reply were released by the spokesman, Al Zack, public relations director of the AFL-CIO.

Meet With Mitchell
"I am asking Secretary Mitchell to confer with you as to your specific ideas on time, place, and composition of the conference you suggest," Eisenhower wrote.

"He will also explore with representative management leaders their ideas on the subject."

Meany had written Eisenhower that "our country must avoid drifting by statute into rigid and arbitrary rules for collective bargaining. Such drifting can only lead to a serious weakening of the underpinnings of our whole democratic way of life."

The AFL-CIO president said he hoped a White House conference would induce labor and management to "talk out their problems and come to some solution—particularly of those problems typified by the attitude of both sides in the steel strike."

The prestige of the White House, Meany said, would put both sides at the conference "under public pressure to come to some kind of accommodation."

Other Involvements
Police say young Hearne has figured in three disorderly incidents in the last 2½ years and was released in each case under immunity.

The State Department said Friday the Dublin government has offered to cooperate in working out some solution of the problems created by the envoy's son.

The object of immunity—from the troubled days of rival and unscrupulous kings—was to protect an ambassador or emissary from arrest or harm as he acted on behalf of his country abroad.

Immunity Is Automatic
The immunity extends to members of an ambassador's family, entourage, household, employees and servants. Anyone who arrests them may himself be liable to prosecution, imprisonment and fine.

For the most part, immunity is automatic. And it is considered that a foreign minister cannot waive it himself. Only governments can waive it, a State Department spokesman said.

In some minor cases diplomatic immunity has been waived, but diplomats consider any breach in the privilege may be a dangerous precedent.

FAIL TO NAME COUNTRY FOR ONE U. N. SEAT

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Delegates to the General Assembly are working behind the scenes seeking a face-saving compromise to break the East-West log jam over a disputed Security Council seat. But the Soviet Union is playing stubborn.

The Assembly has failed after an unprecedented fight through 37 ballots to decide between Communist Poland and U.S.-backed Turkey. The 82-nation body will resume balloting Tuesday after a two-week breather, but there appeared little hope of a breakthrough by either side.

Faced with the bleak prospect of having to stay in session until the election is decided, delegates are beginning to talk about a possible compromise.

Consider Splitting Term
The plans put forward range from a scheme to split the two-year council term between the two contestants to an involved deal that would give Turkey the seat in return for Western assurance the presidency of the 1960 General Assembly would go to a representative of Communist Czechoslovakia.

The United States, apparently feeling its prestige is slipping a little more each time the Assembly goes through another round of futile balloting, is reported anxious to reach some kind of agreement that would end the deadlock and save face for Washington.

The Russians, who don't want to sacrifice the only chance they ever had to place a Red satellite on the powerful 11-nation Security Council, are reportedly cool to any deals.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mrs. C. Julian Bartlett, 47, wife of the Episcopal suffragan bishop in San Francisco, died Friday of a heart condition. She was the former Jeannette Limerick of Baltimore. Bishop Bartlett has been dean of Grace Cathedral the past four years.

neighbors.

But this doesn't fully explain the special affection her neighbors held for her. What does, perhaps, is the phrase "good citizen." That's what many residents of the block called her.

What they meant is that Miss Grafflin was an active supporter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency, and the Northwest Residential Protective Assn. in their attempts to guard the area from overcrowding, an excess of taverns, and other objectionable conditions.

Born In Baltimore
Miss Grafflin was born in the house on McCulloh Street. It was a fashionable section in those days.

When Negroes began moving into the neighborhood about 40 years ago, most of the white persons who could afford it moved away. Miss Grafflin stayed—because she wanted to.

"I have nothing against colored persons," she often told her taxi, presumably to hand out more bills.

Asked to explain his generosity, Foster answered with a question: "Look at it this way: If you were poor, would you rather go to the Welfare Department, where you have to tell them everything about yourself, or would you rather just know that there is someone who can help you without all of that?"

When asked if he had a religious motive, he replied: "Yes, I suppose you would say I have." Other than that, he wasn't saying much.

DEATH BLOCKS PARTY FOR AGED WHITE WOMAN
BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Members of the 1400 Block club had planned to give a birthday party for a favorite member. Instead, they will attend her funeral today.

The club is named for a block of McCulloh Street in northwest Baltimore. Every year, the members gave a birthday party for Miss Edith Brice Grafflin.

Miss Grafflin, 92 on Nov. 4, became ill about three weeks ago and was taken to the hospital. Thursday, she died.

Miss Grafflin, a descendant of one of the founding families of Annapolis, was white. The other members of the club, about 30 in all, are Negroes. All the other residents of the block are Negroes, too.

Inherited $85,000
Who is this mystery man? The people in crowded, rundown row-houses are asking.

He's Arthur Douglas Foster III of suburban Glynndon. He is single and according to a friend, who asked not to be identified, Foster inherited about $85,000 from a grandmother.

His parents, divorced and remarried, both are well-to-do. They have tried to persuade the boy to give up his share-the-wealth plan, Foster told a reporter Friday night.

At a late hour Foster hadn't shown up at his YMCA hotel room in downtown Baltimore, but he phoned from a restaurant telephone.

"All this publicity may force me to change my tactics," he said.

Questioned By Police
After getting many calls about the man, police picked him up Friday and questioned him. Foster was indignant at first, but the officers explained it just isn't common for a man to go around giving away money.

At any rate, they couldn't hold him for giving away his own money, so off he went again by

SON OF IRISH AMBASSADOR IN SCRAPES

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—As far back as diplomats can recall—and that's pretty far—they have enjoyed immunity on foreign soil.

The ancient Greeks even had words for it. They declared an attack on the person of an ambassador was an offense of the gravest nature.

Diplomatic immunity was spotlighted this week when it was invoked here by David Patrick Hearne, 21, son of Irish ambassador John J. Hearne. A widow was struck and killed Wednesday night by a car driven by young Hearne.

The law stepped aside, a coroner's inquest was called off and the ambassador's son, a student at American University, went home to the embassy.

Other Involvements
Police say young Hearne has figured in three disorderly incidents in the last 2½ years and was released in each case under immunity.

The State Department said Friday the Dublin government has offered to cooperate in working out some solution of the problems created by the envoy's son.

The object of immunity—from the troubled days of rival and unscrupulous kings—was to protect an ambassador or emissary from arrest or harm as he acted on behalf of his country abroad.

Immunity Is Automatic
The immunity extends to members of an ambassador's family, entourage, household, employees and servants. Anyone who arrests them may himself be liable to prosecution, imprisonment and fine.

For the most part, immunity is automatic. And it is considered that a foreign minister cannot waive it himself. Only governments can waive it, a State Department spokesman said.

In some minor cases diplomatic immunity has been waived, but diplomats consider any breach in the privilege may be a dangerous precedent.

FOLLIES PLAN CAMERA NIGHT

HERSHEY, Pa.—Camera night, a rare, once-a-year opportunity for camera buffs of the area, will be observed by Ice Follies 1960 edition at Hershey Sports Arena, Tuesday night, November 24, according to an announcement made today by George Bartels, sports arena manager.

Bartels said that this special night has been set aside for camera enthusiasts in order to give them picture-taking opportunities which are not normally possible while the two and one-half hour show is in progress.

"We have arranged to have members of the Follies cast return to the ice for one-half hour at the conclusion of the November 24 show and pose for still or action shots—whatever the camera fan wishes. In addition, we will provide full house lights, ten spot lights and proper exposure direction over our public address system," Bartels said.

"Shooting the stars" of Ice Follies will begin at approximately 10:45 p.m. and continue until approximately 11:15 p.m. Opportunity will be afforded the camera fans to photograph from close range at ice level. Because of the hazards of walking on ice, photographers will be required to operate from the floor inside the bangboards of the ring.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—William E. Evans, 82, Republican representative in Congress from 1927 to 1935, died Friday. Evans, an attorney, represented the old 9th and the 11th districts, both in the Los Angeles metropolitan area.

The plans put forward range from a scheme to split the two-year council term between the two contestants to an involved deal that would give Turkey the seat in return for Western assurance the presidency of the 1960 General Assembly would go to a representative of Communist Czechoslovakia.

The Russians, who don't want to sacrifice the only chance they ever had to place a Red satellite on the powerful 11-nation Security Council, are reportedly cool to any deals.

TEN YEARS AGO

Ralph Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1, is First Human To Be Cured By New Drug; Was Dangerously Ill: Ralph Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1 fruit grower, enjoys the distinction of being the first human being on whom the new medicine neomycin has been used and at the same time gratefully owes his life to this new-found drug.

Two years ago Mr. Pitzer was studied at the Annie M. Warner Hospital by Drs. Bruce N. Wolff, Roy W. Gifford and C. Harold Johnson for a urinary tract infection. Although the trouble was readily found, no known remedy could bring the infection under control.

Early this year the patient was referred by his attending physicians, Drs. Raymond Hale and William North Sterrett, of Arendtsville, to Drs. Samuel Grossman and Russell Allyn, urologists in Harrisburg. A commonly occurring microbe known as aerobacter aerogenes was isolated. Treatment with tremendous dosages of sulfa drugs, penicillin, streptomycin, chloromycetin and aureomycin were successively used, but to no avail.

Any one of these drugs ordinarily readily kills this organism. This however, was a special strain of the germ. Improvements would occur for a few days only to have the infection reappear with greater ferocity. No help for the victim seemed available, and left unchecked the infection doomed the man to certain death.

Dr. Sterrett then referred Mr. Pitzer to the Benjamin Franklin Clinic of Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia. Here the patient was placed under the care of Dr. Garfield G. Duncan, who is internationally famous for his studies of diseases of metabolism including diabetes, his experimental work with the sulfa drugs when they were in their infancy and more recently with his work in the newer field of antibiotics.

Last April Dr. Hubert Leschevalier isolated another antibiotic from a soil microbe. Neomycin is the drug derived from the microbe.

Shortly after his admission to the Benjamin Franklin Clinic Mr. Pitzer's condition became critical. He not only had the infection in both kidneys but also in his blood stream causing a fever of 105 to 106 degrees. Dr. Garfield G. Duncan pitted the tough germs in a test tube under neomycin. The potent drug murdered them in 30 minutes. However, this new chemical, neomycin, had not been given to human beings and experience had shown that the chemical products of many of these soil bacteria were deadly to humans.

Mr. Pitzer elected to take his chance and within 48 hours was a cured man. Five days after administration of the neomycin he left the hospital and has resumed his activities as a fruit-grower and farmer and the infection has not reappeared.

At the present time neomycin has not been developed commercially. Its use is still strictly experimental.

Today's Talk

SELF DISCOVERY

There is nothing more inspiring than to suddenly discover that one has abilities for certain things or in certain directions that had never before showed themselves.

A poet smiling through, or an artist, or a writer, or an orator, or an executive.

It's the business of self discovery that wakes a man and teaches him to see his worth. Tomorrow writer of books. Tomorrow reader of books. Tomorrow, employer of errand boys.

Read to me the story of him, or her, who has fought and won and I shall thenceforth feel the impulses that are able to drive me on.

I look into the recorded purposes of great men and women and see wherein lies a chance for me. For if I learn to search, to discover, and then make use of what I find, my importance becomes established. I find myself growing.

A life of activity and search and service. What could be more desired?

As the diamond cutter and polisher reveals more marvelous and brilliant planes as he progresses, so does a life grow in wonder and attractiveness as it works and works and works — to good and useful ends.

And the deeper one gets into the workings of people, and the world, and far away from the ofttime narrow perspective of oneself, the more is one able to discover.

Just Folks

TELL HIM WHY

When your boy wants to do what he shouldn't—
Some foolish or dangerous thing,
Or something you wish that he wouldn't,
A deed that disaster may bring,
That he must not, you hasten to tell him
And threaten him should be defied;
With a positive order you quell him,
But do you explain to him why?

When you want him to do what he should do,
When you're eager to have him polite,
When it's something you know that he could do,
Do you train him with reason or fright?
You say that he "must" or "severely"
With him you will deal by and by;
You see why it's proper most clearly,
But do you explain to him why?

A boy's mind is open to reason,
A thinking device is his brain;
Injustice he's ready to seize on,
So why don't you stop to explain?
It's perfectly proper to check him
When you see that in danger he'd fly,
But it's certainly sure that you'll wreck him
Unless you explain to him why.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON
Back To Round Hill

The historical and genealogical study of the old Round Hill Graveyard (Presbyterian) is continued at this time with a genealogical sketch of the Weakley-Arnold family. Rachel Weakley, the daughter of William and Jane (Ellett) Weakley, married Dr. John B. Arnold. Both are buried in the Round Hill burial ground.

Dr. John B. Arnold and his wife, Rachel Weakley, were the parents of the following children:

1. Emily B. Arnold—born 1823—died March 12, 1883.
Note: Emily W. Arnold is buried with her parents in the Round Hill Graveyard and the inscription on the marker at her grave is brief and to the point: "In memory of Emily W. Arnold/ Died March 12, 1883/ Aged 63 years and 14 days."

2. Louise Arnold—married Isaac E. Wierman.
Note: In the Tuesday, November 29, 1931, issue of the "Adams Centinel" the following announcement appeared: "Married, November 16, 1931, by the Rev. D. Gottwald, Mr. Isaac E. Wierman to Miss Louise Arnold, both of Huntingdon Township, this County."

3. Charlotte Wierman—married William D. Ramsey.
Note: Adams Centinel—Wednesday, June 11, 1928:
"Married, May 28, 1928, by the Rev. Mr. Boyer, William D. Ramsey, Esq., of this borough (Gettysburg), to Miss Charlotte Arnold, daughter of Dr. John B. Arnold, deceased, of Tyrone Township, this County."

Charlotte (Arnold) Ramsey died comparatively young and is buried with her family in the Round Hill Graveyard. The marker at her grave has the following inscription cut thereon:

"In memory of Charlotte/ wife of W. D. Ramsey/ and daughter of Dr. John B. Arnold/ died August 28, 1851/ Aged 45 years." Adams Centinel, Monday, September 15, 1931.

In Unmarked Grave

"Died, near Carlisle, Pennsylvania, August 27, 1851, after a severe and protracted illness, Mrs. Charlotte Ramsey, widow of William D. Ramsey, deceased, aged 44 years and 6 months."

It is quite possible that William D. Ramsey, who died shortly before his wife, is buried in an unmarked grave in the Arnold family plot in the Round Hill Graveyard. It will also be noticed that there is one day's difference in the date of Charlotte (Arnold) Ramsey's death as given on the marker at her grave and in the obituary published in the local paper. At this late date it is impossible to determine which is the correct one.

4. Harriet Arnold—married Daniel Gardner.
Note: Adams Centinel, Monday, October 16, 1837:
"Married, October 5, 1837, by the Rev. Mr. Quay, Mr. Daniel Gardner, of Latimore Township, this County, to Miss Harriet Arnold, daughter of Dr. John B. Arnold, deceased, of Petersburg (York Springs), this County."

5. John Arnold — married Katharine Stock.
Note: The only son of Dr. John B. and Rachel (Weakley) Arnold and, at the present time, nothing is known pertaining to John Arnold II or his wife.

Other Burials

Also buried in the Arnold family plot, in addition to those whose graves have already been mentioned in this study, are a few other members of the clan as follows:

1. "In memory of Jane Arnold/ daughter of Dr. John and Rachel Arnold/ Died March 23, 1808/ Aged 7 years."

2. "Doctor George Arnold/ Died October 7, 1809/ Aged 25 years." Note: A son of Doctor Nathan and Jane (Trumbell) Arnold, of Connecticut, Dr. George Arnold came to Pennsylvania, with other members of his family, before 1790. He was a graduate in medicine as was his brother, Dr. John B. Arnold. Apparently Dr. George Arnold lived with, or near, his physician brother, and it is possible that they practiced their profession together.

The third child of William and Jane (Ellett) was another daughter —

3. Esther (Hettie) Weakley, married (first) to . . . ? McGrew; and after his death, to . . . ? Maxwell.

4. Isabel Weakley — born 1777 — died 1803 — married to George Jones.

Well-Marked Grave

Note: Isabel (Weakley) Jones is buried in her father's plot in the Round Hill Burial Ground and her grave is well marked: "In memory of Isabelle/ wife of George Jones/ and daughter of William and Jane Weakley/ died August 3, 1803/ Aged 26 years."

Apparently Isabel (Weakley) Jones had a bit of trouble, insofar as her married life was concerned, for on Wednesday, June 17, 1801, the following notice appeared in the old "Adams Centinel":

"Caution — Whereas my wife, Isabelle Jones, alias Weakley, has eloped from my bed and board, without any probable cause whatever, and refuses to

END STRIKE OF 6 BOSTON NEWSPAPERS

BOSTON (AP) — Six Boston newspapers, closed for eight days by a printers' strike were back in operation today.

The strike ended Friday night when the International Typographical Union members voted 644-543 to accept the publishers' offer to arbitrate unresolved issues on wages and fringe benefits.

The vote reserved the action of Nov. 5 when a vote of 561-511 opposing arbitration precipitated the strike.

Only two of the morning papers, the Globe and the Herald were published this morning. The Daily Record, morning tabloid, will resume publication with its Sunday night editions.

The three afternoon papers, the American, Evening Globe, and the Traveler canceled today's editions but will resume Monday.

The publishers said the three Sunday papers — the Sunday Advertiser, the Herald and the Globe — will be published.

About 1,200 printers, along with about 5,000 other newspaper employees, were idle during the eight days.

The printers, who have been getting a base pay of $119.40 weekly plus $4.75 in pension and welfare benefits, sought improved pay terms in a new contract, but their demands were not disclosed.

The publishers' offer was for a 9-cents-an-hour raise retroactive to last Jan. 1, plus a 15-cent additional payment per shift to the pension and welfare fund. In addition they offered 7 2/3 cents an hour additional, effective next Jan. 1 with 5 cents more to the welfare fund.

The publishers also proposed arbitration of the printers' demand for three days off with pay in the event of a death in their immediate families.

Let's Look At The Record DIPLOMA MILLS

Why Study For A University Degree One Girl Did A Doctorate In 3 1/2 Hours

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

YES, THERE IS A COLLEGE UNDERWORLD. It consists of a thousand or more unethical diploma mills that prey upon the ambitions of the young and credulity of their elders. At least a hundred of them, whose names you never heard, grant bogus degrees.

A Chicago correspondence "college" with no impressive name will, for example, confer upon you, by mail, no less than an M.S.D. (Doctor of Metaphysics) for only a hundred and ten dollars.

NORMA LEE BROWNING, an enterprising lady journalist, did all the correspondence lessons for this degree in three and a half hours. She wrote the "dean" that she was a shut-in with lots of time. He sent the forty-nine "lessons" in two batches.

After getting the doctoral degree, she visited her new Alma Mater. For an additional voluntary contribution she could have been ordained as a minister — without postulate in any specific denomination. It was up to her to go forth and organize her own church!

She felt no call to preach, doubted if metaphysics was a religion. But she was told if she wanted to practice metaphysics which seemed to consist of lecturing, guidance, and psychological counseling to the maladjusted, she would be safer working in the name of religion. Some states, she was told, had funny laws and tough examinations for those who cure the sick for professional fees in the traditional manner.

Of course, Miss Browning knew there was no such degree as Doctor of Metaphysics. Her interesting quest for the degree was merely to gather material for her superb expose.

THESE QUICKIE diploma mills and gyp-degree joints seldom consist of more than a post office box, an office and clerical help. They do occasionally have some claim to a legal existence. A state charter of a defunct college, prep school or academy, or one that never jelled, is not unusual. Many were granted in perpetuity to some well meaning group or church.

The famous, precedent-creating Supreme Court case of Dartmouth College vs. Woodward (1819), which contributed to the fame of Daniel Webster, has often made it most difficult for a state to abridge or revoke such charters.

Thus when the charter of an unsuccessful educational effort (degree granting or otherwise) gets in the hands of an unscrupulous person, it can become the instrument of a subtle fraud. Intent is most difficult to prove. The right to be in business is documented.

POSTAL REGULATIONS against fraud have been successful only in the most flagrant cases. It took the medical profession and the postal authorities years to put out of business the infamous "Bishop" Holler and his Oriental Institute. This malarious degree mill legally stemmed from a State of Virginia charter to a group who sought to found a so-called Eastern University.

Do not worry if you have never previously heard of either of these two "universities." You have missed nothing. The same goes for a quickie college in Colorado which, a few years ago, sold a Ph.D. to a credulous woman teacher for a few hundred dollars.

When told her Ph.D. from this document factory was worthless, she sighed and said being in Colorado for two weeks of "resident study" had been a pleasant vacation, perhaps worth the money.

USE HYPNOSIS ON ALCOHOLICS TO GAIN CURE

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN
Associated Press Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A psychotherapist reported Friday he used hypnosis successfully to make chronic alcoholics violently ill from the sight, smell or taste of liquor.

Dr. Michael M. Miller of the Howard University Medical School, Washington, D.C., said he had only four relapses among 24 patients treated by hypnosis. One of the early failures so far has responded well to additional treatment.

He also reported hypnosis has been successful in correcting such conditions as overeating, compulsive cigarette smoking and certain instances of drug addiction.

Saner Technique

In all instances, the technique involved stimulating unconscious aversion reactions — causing the subject to hate or be disgusted or nauseated by the substances he once craved.

The duration of alcoholism among his drinking patients range from 3 to 34 years. The average number of treatments was two and the average length of time the group has remained away from alcohol has been six months.

Not Cure-all

Writing in the Journal of the American Medical Assn., Miller said:

"No claims are being made for this treatment as a cure-all for alcoholism. It represents only a procedure for attempting to control drinking so that constructive psychotherapeutic, social and economic rehabilitative steps can be taken. Alcoholism is symptomatic of deeper underlying disturbances of the personality, and there are probably as many diverse causes for alcoholism as exist for human unhappiness."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The resolutions committee of Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity, settled down to consider matters like freedom of information. The hotel room door opened.

Max Friedersdorf, an Indianapolis News reporter covering the fraternity's national convention, said he was told, "This is a closed meeting. Please leave."

William Palmer, a News photographer, said he was told the same thing and was shoved out the door.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scientists are developing tin compounds that stretch like rubber and can be vulcanized. They say the new development may help meet space age demands for materials that resist heat and flames.

Dr. J. C. Monterosso, of the Quartermaster Research and Engineering Command, Natick, Mass. described the new material today to chemists and engineers attending the International Rubber Conference.

The Milwaukee Braves led the National League in home runs during 1959 with 177. San Francisco was second with 167.

GHS Suffers Humiliating 65-0 Lacing At Hanover In Final Game Of Season

Gettysburg High School's football fortunes dipped to a new low Friday evening when unbeaten Hanover High School, South Penn champions, scored at will to defeat the Warriors 65-0 at Hanover in the final game of the season for both teams.

Only once in the history of the school has a Gettysburg team lost by such a large score. In 1921 Huntingdon downed the Maroons 67-0.

The Nighthawks wasted little time in opening the scoring as Duffy Forsythe passed to halfback Jim Heilman for the initial touchdown in 2:05. The play covered 62 yards with Heilman taking the ball on the Gettysburg 45 and racing into the end zone.

At the four-minute mark Heilman scored again on a 60-yard jaunt after going through right tackle. A minute later Gary Smith intercepted a pass by Gettysburg's Bob Furney and dashed 35 yards for the third touchdown.

The three quick scores killed whatever hope the Warriors might have had of making a close game with the South Penn kingspins.

At the nine-minute mark, "Hen" Mowery scored on a 2-yard dash through left tackle and added the first extra point.

The Nighthawks took longer to get their fifth touchdown as Forsythe passed to Marlin Dutterer from four yards out in 4:01 of the second quarter to make the score 31-0. Less than a minute later Forsythe went over from the Gettysburg two following a theft of a Furney pass. Mowery added the extra point with a placement.

The Warriors did a lot better in the third period as the Nighthawks scored only once—on a four-yard pass from Forsythe to Noel to climax an eight-play, 80-yard drive.

In the final period Hanover's Tex Eiserman scored from 16 yards out after taking a pitchout and racing around right end. Mowery's placement made it 52-0. Coach Steve Padjen then inserted his second team.

At 8:32 Gary Hockensmith intercepted a Gettysburg aerial tossed by Duane and raced 19 yards for Hanover's ninth TD.

Coach Padjen reinserted his varsity at the 10:30 mark of the final period after the Nighthawks recovered a Warrior fumble on the Gettysburg 38. Heilman scored the final touchdown a minute later from five yards out. Mowery's placement completed the scoring.

Three times Gettysburg drove deep into Hanover territory only to be denied a score. Late in the second period, the Warriors moved from their own six to the Hanover one where the home team held and took over on downs as the half ended. Jason Gulden's 50-yard run was a feature of the drive.

Early in the third period, the Warriors moved to the Hanover 36 but were forced to punt. Again early in the fourth quarter the Warriors moved from their own 27 to the Hanover 16 where a fumble stopped the attack.

Among other things Hanover recovered two of their own kick-offs.

The injury-riddled Warriors finished the season with a 2-6-1 record. It was the 10th straight for the Hawks.

EX-CHAMP IN HOME TOWN FOR DEDICATION

SHELBY, N.C. (AP) — Floyd Patterson, former heavyweight champion, came home Friday night to dedicate a Negro community center because, in the words of his lawyer, "boxing has been good to him and he'd like to repay it in some way."

And the 24-year-old Negro fighter promised his racially mixed audience:

"If it's God's will that I should win back my championship, I would like to come back here right after the fight and celebrate with you."

The visit was Patterson's first to Cleveland County since his parents moved north when he was one-year old.

Is In Training

The former champ is training at Newtown, Conn., for his title rematch next February or March with Ingemar Johansson, but he broke camp to come here for the dedication of the Holly Oak Park Community Center, a project financed by a municipal bond issue of $100,000.

"He is interested in Youth and recreation," said lawyer Julius November, explaining why Patterson accepted the speaking engagement and drove all night to get here.

And Patterson himself told the dedication audience, "If more of these centers were built over the world and people were as cooperative as they have been in Shelby, it would be a much better world to live in."

YORK COUNTY ASSESSMENTS SET AT 20 PCT.

The York County commissioners have agreed by resolution that real estate in the county will be assessed at 20 per cent of actual value for the taxing year of 1960 and then announced that property owners will receive notices of new assessed valuation figures beginning November 23 instead of December 1 as previously indicated.

Harry C. Busser, president of the board of commissioners, said it was undetermined how long it would take to complete the distribution of notices.

The assessment ratio adopted by the commissioners is in line with the York County Assessors Association's recommendation which urged that the figure not exceed the 20 per cent mark.

Notices to be mailed to 80,000 property owners will list the assessed valuation of properties, but will not include the newly determined actual or market valuation.

Property owners will have 30 days from the time they receive their assessed valuation notices to file appeals with the commissioners. Persons dissatisfied with the commissioners' decision on appeal may resort to court action.

NEW YORK (AP)—The $2 bet apparently will remain the minimum wagering unit at the nation's race tracks.

The New York Racing Assn. joined Friday with Hollywood Park and Santa Anita in California in announcing they planned no change in the pari-mutuel structure.

The Thoroughbred Racing Assn. announced recently that the agenda for its convention at New Orleans next month included discussion on raising the $2 minimum bet to $5.

Nickel was considered a comparatively rare metal until the latter part of the 19th Century, when extensive ore deposits were discovered on the island of New Caledonia in the South Pacific.

The island remained the world's chief source of nickel until early this century, when Canadian production surpassed it.

LARGE FISH KILL PROBED

HARRISBURG (AP) — State health and fish officials are investigating a large fish kill on the Susquehanna River at Fairmount near the Dauphin-Lancaster County line.

A Fish Commission spokesman said the kill apparently occurred a week ago, but wasn't reported until Friday.

Walter A. Lyon, chief sanitary engineer in the State Health Department, said a preliminary report indicates the fish were killed by cyanide.

However, he said, the delay in reporting the kill will make it difficult, if not impossible, to determine responsibility for dumping the poison into the stream.

Lyon said the size of the kill has not been determined, but added that reports indicate it was widespread.

GIANTS OPEN ON NEW FIELD

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Giants have built the National Football League's longest winning streak of the season with a defense that has allowed only 35 points in the five victories and no touchdowns in the last two. It had better be just as good Sunday when the defending Eastern Conference champions entertain the Pittsburgh Steelers.

New York's two top quarterbacks, Charley Connerly and George Shaw, are injured, and it will be up to Don Heinrich, 6-year veteran from the University of Washington, to run the Giant offense. All-pro halfback Frank Gifford will be on quarterback standby.

The Giant defense turned in one of its finest jobs in Pittsburgh Oct. 25 when it saved a 21-16 victory over the Steelers (2-1) by holding for downs on the 6-yard line just before the final gun.

New York is favored by 7½ points this time.

But the San Francisco 49ers, whose 6-1 record tops the Western Conference by two games, are 2½ point underdogs at Chicago where they meet the Bears (3-4).

While New York's 6-1 Eastern lead is only a game better than the Cleveland Browns, the Giants' remaining schedule is much lighter than that of the 49ers. Following the Bears, the 49ers are at Baltimore and Cleveland on successive Sundays.

49ers Shaded Bears

The 49ers shaded the Bears 20-17 at San Francisco on a 46-yard TD pass from quarterback Y. A. Tittle to R. C. Owens with 61 seconds left. That game was played the same day the Giants stopped the Steelers and in a schedule quirk all the rest of Sunday's games are rematches of Oct. 25 games.

The Browns (5-2) are favored by 8½ points over the Redskins (3-4) at Washington. Cleveland won 34-7 last time at home.

The Colts (4-3) are 10½ points over the Green Bay Packers (3-4) at Milwaukee. The Colts won 38-21 at Baltimore.

The Philadelphia Eagles (4-3) are 3½ points home favorites over the Chicago Cardinals. The Eagles who still have a long shot at the Eastern title, whipped the Cards 28-24 at Minneapolis.

The Los Angeles Rams (2-5) are at Detroit (1-5-1), but the Rams get the favoritism by 2½. Detroit's victory was at Los Angeles, 17-7.

STEEL STRIKE MAY FORCE NEW LEGISLATION

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Legislation to curb the power of both Steelworkers may result if no strike settlement is reached within the 80-day cooling-off period, Vice President Richard M. Nixon predicted Friday night.

Twarned that if the dispute remains unresolved, it will land in the lap of Congress in an election year when "political considerations will have far more effect than they should have."

"We have hopes that within this 80-day period both the steel companies and the union will recognize that if they go to the end of the period without settlement, gresioal action detrimental to both," Nixon said.

Spoke At Banquet

The vice president gave his views in a question-and-answer session at the banquet of the 50th anniversary convention of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

He said also that the farm income problem looms as possibly the major domestic issue for the 1960 campaign and the administration is studying recommendations to Congress to solve it.

Nixon said that expansion of foreign markets is not the answer if it means dumping of surpluses abroad. He said this hurts foreign relations.

The vice president again refused

GIANTS MEET STEELERS IN BIG BATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Horace Stoneham, president of the San Francisco Giants, says he's satisfied the new 15 million dollar Candlestick Park will be ready come the opening of the 1960 National League baseball season.

Stoneham and contractor Charles Harney visited the 45,000-seat stadium Friday and the Giant executive said the tour ended in complete accord.

Complete accord, to Stoneham, meant the "skin" on the dirt area of the infield will be replaced.

"Harney has told us to go ahead and get the job done right," Stoneham said. "He will cooperate."

Matty Schwab, long-time Giant groundskeeper and Harvey Spargo, who handled the same duties at Seals Stadium where the Giants played the first two seasons here, insisted the playing surface is inadequate.

"Harney's men will start digging Monday," Stoneham said, "and, if the weather holds, the new surface could be in within 10 days."

The City of San Francisco is building the park for the Giants, who have the right to accept or reject it.

2 RICH RACES TO RUN TODAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A dozen handicap performers and 13 two-year-olds, who have had little to say regarding the 1959 turf titles, have today's two richest races all to themselves.

There is no Round Table, Hillsdale, Bald Eagle, Warfare or Thompson with whom to contend in their battle for the major share of two $25,000-added purses.

The older horses tangle in the 1½ miles of the Idlewild Handicap at Aqueduct and the juveniles in the mile of the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes at Churchill Downs.

English-bred Amerigo, winner of five races this year including the Ocean City and New York handicaps, beat a week ago by Greek Star, picks up top weight of 123 pounds in the Idlewild. He's the likely favorite even though Greek Star is in the race with 119 pounds. A half-length separated them in last Saturday's Trenton at Garden State Park.

Other Results

In addition to his two stake triumphs, Amerigo has finished second in nine and third in two. Greek Star's record shows victories in five stakes. Also in with 119 pounds is Promised Land, the 1957 winner now in the middle of a comeback.

Breaux Top is top weighed under 119 pounds for the Churchill Downs feature. But he is the probable choice over the likes of Malaysia, Run For Nurse, Road House and Doc Schaeffer.

Two-year-olds also run for the big money at Narragansett Park with Leon K., Leo's Baker and April Skies heading a field of 13 in the 1-16 miles of the $15,000-added James H. Connors Memorial Stakes.

NEGRO ADMITS HE ASSAULTED WHITE GIRL, 18

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Police said a Negro ex-convict admitted in writing Friday night that he took part in the kidnapping, beating and raping of an 18-year-old white girl Sept. 10.

Police Chief John J. Theroff said Earl Wilson, 21, who had been arrested on a burglary charge, made the confession. He said Wilson's statement implicated two other Negroes—Eugene Artzy, 22, who also is in custody, and David McClelland Jr., 26, whose body was found in the Missouri River nine days after the crime.

The girl was forced into a car shortly after alighting from a bus near her home late at night. She was driven several miles to the basement of a home under construction, where she was beaten and raped.

Tip From Father

McClelland was linked to the crime even before his body was found. Police, tipped off by his father, found undergarments belonging to the victim in a closet at McClelland's home, and established that his car was the one used in the abduction. They theorized that he might have been thrown into the river to keep him from identifying his companions.

An autopsy disclosed nothing to support the theory, and authorities said Wilson denied having anything to do with McClelland's death.

to commit himself as a presidential candidate next year, saying it's too early to discuss his plans. But he called running for a third term as vice president "completely out of the question."

Syracuse Expects An Easy Tilt With Colgate Today

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With only three major college football teams remaining on the unbeaten-untied list, the wheel of fortune stopped in the niche marked "Syracuse" today.

The Orangemen—No. 1 team in the nation—drew powerless neighbor Colgate as their opponent. The Red Raiders, once a power to be reckoned with—and many times conqueror of Syracuse—have hit lean days, and Ben Schwartzwalder's operatives figured to have no trouble winning No. 8.

UCLA beat North Carolina State 21-12, Miami (Fla.) smashed South Carolina 26-6, and Kirksville (Mo.) drubbed Bradley 38-8 in Friday night's games.

May Be Weary

The other two members of the Big Three—Texas and Southern California—could be in trouble. The Longhorns, ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll, have been showing signs of weariness, and Texas Christian, their opponent, is no pushover.

If Texas can pull it out, the Longhorns are virtually in. If they lose, and Arkansas should lick Southern Methodist in another Southwest Conference game, the Razorbacks go into first place in the league and the favorite's spot to act as host in the Cotton Bowl come New Year's Day. That's how precarious Texas' position is.

USC Vs. Baylor

Southern Cal, ineligible for a bowl game, had a date with dangerous Baylor, an in-and-out club, ch barely lost to Texas a week ago. The Trojans are in the NCAA's doghouse, so their interest in the year's work is strictly academic — to keep their record clean.

Other conferences also are down to the put-up-or-shut-up stage. Here's how they shape up:

Big 10—Northwestern and Wisconsin tied for the lead, respectively, Michigan State and Illinois. Both the leaders are favored, but if one falters it's curtains.

Georgia Vs. Auburn

Southeastern — Georgia, the leader, faces a toughie in Auburn. But if the Bulldogs are in an unenviable spot, imagine how Mississippi must feel. Ole Miss, still in the running, goes against Tennessee, the club that ended both Auburn's and Louisiana State's streaks. LSU plays Mississippi State.

Atlantic Coast — Clemson, unbeaten, tangles with Maryland. Wake Forest, still in the race, could be knocked out of it against Duke. Clemson and Wake Forest meet next week.

Ivy—Penn, in first place, is the heavy favorite over Columbia. But this won't settle anything. Cornell, Princeton, Yale, and Dartmouth all are still in it.

Big Eight—Oklahoma, weak but still conceded the title, plays Army in an intersectional game. But that doesn't interest the others. The Sooners can't return to the Orange Bowl, so the runner-up makes the trip. At the moment three teams are tied for second—Kansas, Colorado, and Iowa State. Kansas plays Oklahoma State, and Nebraska clashes with Colorado. Iowa State is involved in a nonleague game against San Jose State.

Scores Touchdown, Collapses, Dies

LOWELL, Mass. (AP)—Thomas Conway, 15, died Friday of a heart seizure moments after he ran 40 yards to a touchdown in a neighborhood football game.

His grandfather, Edward O'Neil, 67, died of a heart attack in St. John's Hospital three hours earlier.

The Conway boy was in a huddle after his touchdown run when he collapsed. He was pronounced dead at the same hospital in which his grandfather died.

Pageantry Is Planned For Winter Olympics

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Massed bands and a chorus of thousands, spectacular fireworks at the release of 2,000 pigeons, symbolizing dove: of peace, are some of the pageantry planned for the Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley Dec. 18-28.

For the enjoyment of the 400,000 fans expected to visit the scenic games site high in the Sierra, film producer Walt Disney is planning to turn the 11-day games into a fitting spectacle.

As head of the pageantry committee, Disney has had his designers and artists working on the Olympic show for nearly a year. It promises to be one of the most elaborate spectacles in games history.

The ceremonies will utilize more than 5,000 performers, including 52 California and Nevada

G-BURG FROSH DEFEAT JAYS 9-7 IN FINAL

Gettysburg College's freshmen finished their football season Friday afternoon when they took a 9-6 decision from the Johns Hopkins yearlings at Baltimore.

The victory gives Jack Ridinger's Bullets a 3-2 record for the season. Ron Council tallied the Bullets' lone touchdown early in the second period when he streaked 47 yards, two plays after the locals had taken possession on their own 39 via a Blue Jay punt. Dick Helbig booted the extra point on a placement.

Midway in the first quarter Gettysburg chalked up a safety. Helbig got off a 34-yard punt which rolled dead on the Johns Hopkins' two. Poffenberg picked up a yard on the next play but then Howie Wilbraham, Gettysburg quarterback, broke through to toss Schaefer in the end zone for the safety.

A Gettysburg fumble early in the third period led to the Jay's only score.

Hopkins took the second half kickoff and racked up four straight first downs to the Gettysburg 13. Two plunges were good for seven yards and two passes fell incomplete as Gettysburg took over on the seven. On the third Bullet play a fumble took place with Simpson recovering for Hopkins on the six. Caplan blasted over from the two on the second play. Schaefer passed to Berzins in the try for the extra point but the Jays were penalized 15 yards and on the next try Schaefer was stopped.

ROCKEFELLER ON COAST BUT CHARM FELT LIKE NIXON TOO

EDITOR'S NOTE: What kind of an impression did New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller make on his invasion of Vice President Nixon's home territory? From California, Relman Morin, two-time Pulitzer Prize winner, reports fellow Republicans greeted Rockefeller warmly. But "Nixon Now" lapel buttons were in evidence everywhere.

By RELMAN MORIN
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is serenading California today, hoping to open the corral where Vice President Richard M. Nixon has virtually all the state's Republicans tethered.

They like Rockefeller's music but so far there are no signs of a stampede starting.

In Los Angeles, he received a warm, friendly, howdy-podner type of welcome when he arrived in the state. People turned out in large numbers at a luncheon and a dinner where he spoke. Party leaders talked politics and prospects with him at informal receptions. A number of influential Californians, known to be staunch Nixon supporters, met him in private receptions.

Saw Nixon Buttons
But — Wherever Rockefeller went, saucer-sized "Nixon Now" lapel buttons met his eye.

A toastmaster's mention of Nixon's name during dinner preliminaries Thursday night touched off a wild, standing, whooping-and-hollering explosion of applause for the vice president. Rockefeller joined it.

As for the comments — "I talked with about 50 party workers who met him today," said the Los Angeles County chairman, Alphonzo E. Bell Jr. "Nothing transpired today to change their position."

Good Impression
"He made a very good impression," said Frances Larsen, vice chairman of the city's central committee. "We were charmed. But we're all solidly for Dick Nixon."

Rockefeller's lieutenants, however, profess to be anything but disappointed today.

One of them, who came into the state ahead of the governor, said he has been surprised by the unsolicited offers of support from Californians. He said "any number of them" told him, "take my name. If this thing gets rolling for Rockefeller, you can count on me."

Reads His Speeches
Rockefeller's million-volt personal charm appeared far more effective in the small, informal meetings with party faithful than from the public platform Thursday.

At both the World Affairs Council luncheon and the Western Conference Dinner, he read his speeches.

He reads meticulously, following every comma and dash in the text. But he stumbled frequently. Once or twice, misreading a word, he found himself in the middle of a sentence going nowhere.

Doggedly, he backed up and began the sentence all over.

By contrast, he generated genu-

Former Deputies Deny Intimacies

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Three deputies fired by the sheriff say they plan a legal fight against accusations they were intimate with women prisoners at the jail.

All three, in a radio broadcast Thursday night, said they were taking their case to the public in an effort to prod Sheriff M. A. Hinds into further investigation.

"I don't think the sheriff made much of an investigation into this thing," said J. C. Lowry, 25. Identical complaints were made by Kenneth Mattox, 22, and David Climer, 27. All three are married.

The men deny the sheriff's charge that they were intimate with two prisoners in the women's dormitory at the county jail where they served as jailors.

FIVE CHILDREN PERISH IN FIRE

CHICAGO (AP)—Five children—aged 1 to 4—perished in a fire which swept through a one-story frame home in suburban Markham Thursday in the midst of a snowstorm.

The children were alone, police reported.

The mother of two of the victims was across the street visiting when the fire broke out, police said. She raced into the burning home and carried four of the children from a bedroom, but they had suffocated. The fifth child's body was found in the kitchen.

Dead were the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Hamlet Reddick—Philip, 1, and Michael 3—and the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reddick—Myra, 1, Ted, 3, and Gail, 4. The Reddicks are brothers.

The families are Negro.

NEW YORK (AP)—Advertising used to promote sale of the Regimen brand of reducing pills is under investigation by Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan who said his office is seeking to determine whether claims made for the pills constitute false and misleading advertising under the state penal code.

line enthusiasm and approval in a series of small receptions in the hotels.

He was easy, relaxed, flashing his bright sunburst of a smile. He listened patiently to political anecdotes, some without a point, and California jokes, many of them corny.

Talking with party workers, he portrayed himself as a good republican. "I have always been a party contributor and gone to the fund raising dinners but I'm ashamed to say I never worked at the grass roots level before the campaign for governor last year."

Other Facets
And a believer in the patronage system, carried on through party channels. "Recommendations for appointments are brought to me from local leaders through the county chairmen and state leaders."

And an effective administrator. "I persuaded an executive to leave a $150,000-a-year job to take an $18,000 job in government."

"We are getting on a sound fiscal basis in New York."

In short, he sketched a picture of a man with whom Republican satraps, big and small, could work, and whose problems he understands.

STATEN ISLAND FEARS SECOND "MAD BOMBER"

NEW YORK (AP)—Fear of an unknown killer, who used a hand grenade to take a life gripped a quiet residential section of Staten Island today.

The wave of fear and speculation followed the death Thursday of Concetta Giarletta at a hospital, and a telephoned threat to another Staten Islander that "your garage is going to be next."

It was a hand grenade rigged to her garage door that shattered the 41-year-old housewife's legs last Tuesday night and wounded her so badly that doctor's couldn't save her. Her 50-year-old husband, Frank, waiting to put their car in the garage, was unhurt.

24-hour Watch
Neighbors said the dark-haired woman was without a known enemy in the world.

Police, possessing a hand grenade handle as the only clue, speculated that she may have been the victim in a bombing meant for some one else, or the random target of a madman.

Many Staten Islanders voiced fears that a homicidal successor to George Metesky, the so-called "Mad Bomber," might be at large. Metesky planted 32 homemade bombs in New York City in 17 years, before he was captured in 1957 and committed to a state hospital for the insane. His bombs injured 15 persons.

Police Thursday posted an around-the-clock watch on the home of Charles Trachta, located a mile from the Giarletta house, as a result of an anonymous phone call to his wife.

NEW FILM OUT ON JOHN THE BAPTIST'S LIFE

By GEOFFREY MILLER

LYTCHETT MINISTER, England (AP) — The ordinary folk of this sleepy English village — the lady of the manor and the dairymaid, the village doctor and the cowherd — have teamed together in a novel work of religious faith. They've made a movie.

Using their own camera, working every Sunday for three years, they produced an epic film of the life of John the Baptist.

It is now going round the world.

Extra Languages

Not long ago the movie, called "Voice in the Wilderness," was shown at the 16th International Conference on Audio-Visuals in the Church at Green Lake, Wis. It has been screened also in New York and Ottawa. New sound tracks are being prepared in German, Iranian and Japanese.

It was the lady of the manor — to whom English country folk still touch their caps in deference — who thought of it all. Actually Lady Madeline Lees, grey-haired widow of a baronet, doesn't live in the manor any more because she can't afford it.

Making the movie fulfilled her life's ambition. Years ago, she watched the villagers of Oberammergau in Bavaria presenting their famous passion play. She vowed she would make Lytchett Minister, home of the Lees family for generations, the English Oberammergau.

Used Local Scenery

"The only way to achieve it seemed to be by means of a film," she says.

"My husband and I had been to Palestine. We began to reconnoiter Palestinian scenery in and around Lytchett Minister."

Local ponds and streams became the River Jordan. Clay and sand pits served as the desert. In the end the movie cost around 2,500 pounds ($7,000). Lady Madeline still has not paid it all off, but British churches are hiring it at 2 pounds ($5.60) a showing, and overseas royalties are flowing in as well.

Villagers in Cast

Lady Madeline's son, 34-year-old Sir Thomas Lees, learned how to handle a movie camera. Roy Gornold, who has had professional movie experience, helped Lady Madeline with her script.

Then the villagers were rounded up for the acting parts. Clifford Mountford, who is studying to be a Methodist minister, played John the Baptist. Lady Madeline's daughter Faith was the Angel Gabriel. Donald Davey, a teacher at the village school, was Joseph.

Peter Chown, the local doctor, was chosen as Jesus of Nazareth.

"We picked him because of his outstanding character, bearing and height," Lady Madeline says. He is 6 feet 7 inches tall.

Hundreds of other people living around here were used as Arabs and Roman soldiers.

Asia is the most mountainous continent on earth. It has the largest mountain masses and the highest peaks.

House Throws Out Collection Plan

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House Thursday defeated a plan to allow milk dealers to collect dues from producers on behalf of co-operatives or other milk associations.

Under a measure, which fell five votes short of the required 106, the dealers would have deducted up to six cents per hundredweight of milk from payments to producers. The proposal is similar to the union dues checkoff procedure in industry.

In other action the House passed and sent to the Senate bills which would:

Exempt resort area sales of gifts, souvenirs and novelties from the Sunday sales restrictions (130-30).

Grant permanent teacher certification to teachers with three years experience in private institutions from which the state purchases services or in state-aided or state-owned second-grade schools (159-1).

BLACK ANGUS CHAMP DRAWS $2.20 PER LB.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The third annual Pennsylvania Livestock exposition closed Friday with the sale of 73 steers, 194 lambs and 261 barrows at public auction.

A record $2.20 a pound was bid by the Hilton Hotel of Pittsburgh for P. S. Flash, a 1,070-pound black Angus named the grand champion steer of the show. It was owned by Pennsylvania State University.

The live animal sale averages were: Steers, $32.29 a hundredweight; barrows, $16.78 and the lambs, $21.25.

Buy Reserve Steer

The hotel also bought the reserve champion steer, a 940-pound shorthorn raised by Dianne Ross, the daughter of the late Senator Ross of Sardinia, Ohio. The purchase price was a dollar a pound, but William R. McGillicuddy, Hilton buyer, threw in a bonus of another 160 pounds "for Miss Ross's weight and charm." That made the total price $1,100.

The champion barrow, a Hampshire owned by Bi-Lane Sisters, Sabina, Ohio, sold for $170 a pound to Wieland Packing Co., Phoenixville, Pa.

The champion wether (Lamb), owned by Terry Shaffner, Oak Hall Station, Centre County, sold for $1.05 a pound to Mrs. John G. Stephen, Allentown.

NATION'S NEW WATCHDOG ON RACKETS IN LABOR BUSY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's new labor rackets watchdog is busy at work in a Labor Department office as enforcement chief of the anti corruption provisions of the new labor law.

O'Connor is assembling a staff to insure fair elections in labor unions, honest handling and reporting of union funds, and elimination of Communists and convicts from union leadership — as required under provisions of the new law.

Interviewing For Jobs
Some of the 90 investigators formerly employed by the Senate rackets probers — the group that turned up the labor corruption story that led to passage of the new labor controls — are being interviewed for jobs on O'Connor's staff. There will be more than 100 such sleuths.

Selection of O'Connor, a veteran Washington lawyer with a half dozen years' service with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, came as key sections of the new labor control law went into effect today.

Some sections of the new law became operative on Sept. 14, when President Eisenhower signed the new legislation. Others became effective today and still more will go into effect in December.

Tighten Bans

Today's new provisions are amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act dealing with changes in the rules for labor-management relations rather than provisions aimed at curbing labor union corruption.

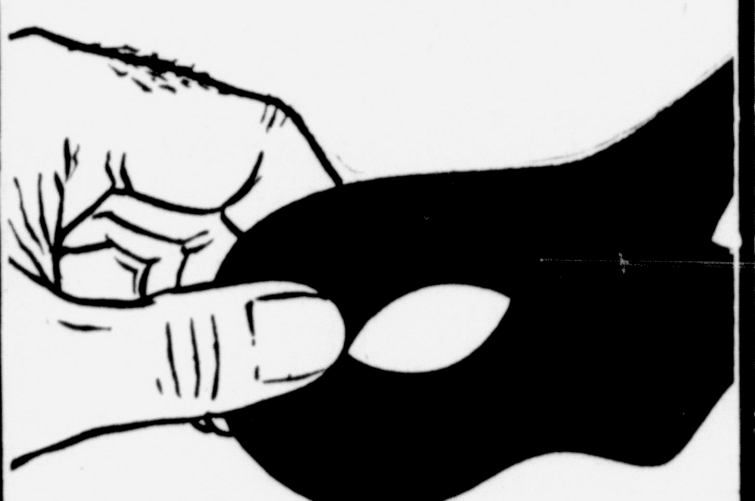

The latest changes were the most controversial and include tighter bans on picketing and boycotts. They also permit the states to take over jurisdiction of labor cases over which the National Labor Relations Board declines jurisdiction.

Stuart Rothman, the NLRB's general counsel, and the man who will administer this part of the law, told the New York City Chamber of Commerce Thursday that nobody can figure out exactly at this point the full meaning of the picketing, boycott and other T-H law changes.

He said the new labor relations rules will have to be measured against facts in particular cases.

Beef Cattle, Sheep Need Adequate Roughage Says Agent; Tips On Pipe Laying

By FRANK S. ZETTLER
Adams County Farm Agent

Roughage comprises a greater percentage of the total feed consumed by sheep and beef cattle than any other species of farm livestock. Good hay and silage make up practically all the feed needed on most sheep or beef cattle farms in Adams County.

An ample supply of good roughage is not only desirable, but absolutely necessary.

Silage, either corn or grass, make a good replacement for hay. Because of its high-moisture content, silage is roughly equal to one-third the feeding value of hay.

To winter a dry beef cow under most county conditions will require one of the following rations:

- 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 tons of mixed hay
- 1,200 to 1,500 pounds of good legume hay plus 1 1/4 tons of filler, such as cornstover or oat straw.
- 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 tons of grass silage.

Winter pasture, such as wheat, barley or rye will help considerably to cut feed costs and labor.

Ewe Requirements

Roughage needed for bred ewes will vary, depending on their size, and the availability of winter pasture. You should have on hand 500 to 600 pounds of good hay per ewe for a five-month feeding period. Grain feeding is not necessary usually until 4 to 6 weeks before lambing.

Racks constructed so cattle and sheep cannot waste the hay will help considerably in conserving the hay supply.

Farmers and rural home owners who are planning to modernize or replace some of their home water supply lines should consider using plastic pipe.

It is both economical in cost and easy to install. The smooth sure loss in the pipe due to friction, and normally a plastic pipe will have the same water carrying capacity as a one-size-larger galvanized steel pipe.

Attachment Available
No longer do you have to dig a trench by hand or hire a ditching machine to do this back-breaking job. Now, an attachment mounted on the subsoiler designed for a farm tractor will feed the plastic pipe down into the trench cut by the subsoiler. The flexible pipe can be worked around boulders, laid around curves, or placed on uneven grades without cutting the pipe or using expensive fittings.

Pipe-laying attachments for subsoilers cost less than $50.00, and this cost can be justified readily in the time and labor saved in completing the job. In some areas a subsoiler and pipe-laying attachment can be rented from your local machinery dealer or neighbor.

Be sure to purchase pipe bearing the National Sanitation Foundation seal of approval, NSF, which means that it is made from unused materials and is approved for carrying drinking water.

Suggested Methods
November is not too early to think about protecting water pipes from freezing.

Cover any pipe lying on the surface of the ground with about 30 inches of soil. If you are laying a new line, place it in a trench about 30 inches deep or below the frost line.

Use electric heating cable on exposed pipes which cannot be covered or insulated. This practice saves labor and trouble and protects the pipe from freezing even in the coldest weather.

Several types of heating cables are available, ranging in cost from 6 to 20 cents per foot. The cost of electricity for heating seldom exceeds 3.5 cents per 24 hours for a 26 foot cable. Never lengthen or shorten the heating cable, because the heat output will be affected and may cause a hazard. A cut cable will become too hot and may burn out.

Thermostats are not necessary, but may be desirable. A thermostat makes the protection automatic and more economical. Be sure the pipe being protected is well grounded to keep people and animals from getting an electric shock.

Castro Foresees Difficult Days Ahead For His Regime

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Looking grim and haggard Prime Minister Fidel Castro told the Cuban people early Friday that his revolution faces difficult days.

Castro took only a sideswipe at the United States—usually his favorite target—but lashed out in a three-hour tirade, saying his enemies are a home and called them "hypocrites who once posed as friends of the revolution."

"Rats are going to abandon the ship when things get rougher," he declared. "This is going to remind me of the bad days of the revolution when many gave up the fight."

He predicted that the revolution would march on even if its enemies "try to mobilize God against us."

Wary From Search

"This won't work," Castro said, "because one cannot have a good idea of God if he doesn't have a notion of what it is to love his neighbor."

Obviously wary from his hours of directing the search for Maj. Camilo Cienfuegos, his missing army chief, Castro showed only occasional flashes of his usual fire and spirit. At times his customarily free-flowing oratory lapsed as if he was grasping for a word. Bags under his eyes were clearly visible.

He rejected the U. S. contention that there was no evidence U. S.-based aircraft bombed and strafed Havana in a leaflet raid over the capital Oct. 21. Castro reiterated his charge that Maj. Pedro Diaz Lanz, former commander of the revolutionary air force who defected, was responsible for the raid. He claimed again that two persons were killed and scores wounded.

Lanz Awaits Hearing

Diaz Lanz was arrested in Miami on a Cuban government warrant seeking his extradition. He is now out on bail awaiting a hearing on whether he should be sent back to face charges of murder, but the United States informed Cuba the bomb bay on the plane he flew was inoperative and there was no evidence the plane did any bombing or strafing.

In an obvious reference to the United States, Castro declared neither "threats, calumnies or insolence will intimidate us. We are happy just where we are because reason is with us. Reason is not with those who have more money, more resources or more news agencies. If they want to discuss matters quietly and treat us right, we'll treat anyone right."

Castro charged that the Platt amendment giving the United States special privileges in Cuba was the chief source of Cuba's economic and social ills.

This amendment to the Cuban constitution—drafted in 1901 and canceled in 1934—gave the United States naval bases in Cuba, prohibited Cuba having commercial relations with other nations, and gave the United States the right to intervene in Cuban affairs if American property were endangered. The only remnant of it today is the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo.

Castro sharply criticized American news agencies and some American newspapers. A member of the panel in the TV studio read a Washington newspaper report claiming Soviet submarines were secretly delivering arms to Cuba.

"If we need arms, we will not bring them in like contraband but through the open port of Havana because this is a sovereign country," he shouted.

Vote Eases Vets' Residence Ruling

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House voted unanimously Thursday to ease residence requirements for the Korean War Veterans bonus. The special residence requirement for veterans who had been in service four years immediately prior to the outbreak of the Korean War June 25, 1950, would be eliminated in the plan.

Such veterans not only must have served in the Korean War theater under present requirements, but also must have been legal residents of Pennsylvania when the bonus legislation was enacted July 8, 1957.

Some Excluded

Neither requirement applies to veterans who went into the service

4 LAW SUITS DISMISSED BY U. S. JUDGE

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Federal Judge Frederick V. Follmer Friday dismissed a series of law suits filed by Adolphus Hohensee, Scott Twp., who had been convicted of violating the pure food and drug act.

Hohensee served a year in federal prison for misbranding products in interstate commerce. He and his wife, Mildred, filed the suits as a result of Hohensee's conviction.

Judge Follmer dismissed the following suits on grounds Hohensee "failed to state a claim on which relief can be granted."

Names Judge

A $10,000,000 suit against federal judge Albert L. Watson, sentencing judge in Hohensee's trial; attorneys Levy Clark, former assistant U. S. attorney, and Steven Teller, prosecutors at the trial.

A $750,000 suit against Marilyn Ferguson, staff writer, and J. Alex Zehner, editor, Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph; John J. Kane, John M. Walker, Howard A. Stewart, William Nichols, Nathaniel Beck, G. H. Rohrer and Gilbert Cloonan, board of managers of Allegheny County Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Home, Pittsburgh; Allegheny County Medical Society, American Medical Society and the Pittsburgh Better Business Bureau.

Transfer Made

A suit totaling $5,000,000 against the Sun-Telegraph was transferred to federal court in Pittsburgh "in the interest and convenience of parties and witnesses."

In another suit, Hohensee and Scientific Living Inc., which he operated, asked for $10,000,000 against News Syndicate of New York city. Judge Follmer granted a motion to quash the service of summons after pointing out that the "service purported to have been made in this case is completely ineffective to bring the defendant within jurisdiction of this court."

World Briefs

JOGJAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—South Viet Nam, a major recipient of American aid, Friday criticized the new U. S. aid policy aimed at getting borrowing countries to do their buying in America.

South Viet Nam's Foreign Minister Vu Van Mau also told delegates at the Colombo Plan Conference that terms offered by the American Development Loan Fund "are too rigid and too difficult for any underdeveloped countries to meet."

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld Friday began a personal study of the situation in rebellion-troubled Laos with a call on King Savang Vatthana.

It was the first major audience granted by the 52-year-old monarch since the death two weeks ago of his father, King Sisavang Vong.

Metallic nickel was first produced on an industrial scale in 1824.

PAIR EXCITED ABOUT INFANT THEY'LL ADOPT

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A childless Alaska couple, chosen to adopt the unborn, unwanted child of a Timperly, England, woman, couldn't be more anxious for the new arrival if it were their own.

They even have names picked out. "If it's a boy we'll name him Michael," Mrs. Jesse Malone said. "If it's a girl it will be Nanette."

To Be Born In America

Mrs. Malone and her husband, an employee of the Federal Aviation Agency, said they plan to bring Sheila Winkley of Timperly to the United States so the baby will be born an American citizen. The Malones were told Thursday that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winkley had selected them to receive the baby after going through some 200 letters from couples who wanted the child.

The Winkleys say they do not want the child because they could not face another bout of baby-minding.

The Malones don't mind. "I've been knitting baby sweaters for all my friends," Mrs. Malone said. "Now I'll have to start knitting some for myself."

MARLENE HAS GIVEN IN TO TV SPECIAL

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Marlene Dietrich, a television hold-out all these years, finally has given in. She has signed for a one-hour color special called "Dietrich in Paris," to be filmed in an opening night of her forthcoming appearance in the French capital.

"It has been very difficult to find a vehicle," confided the glamorous grandmother. "But in this case, I'm playing my show anyway. This prevents a lot of complications."

"Usually, when you are signing to do something in television, everybody hopes for the best and is full of ideas. Then later, the ideas are forgotten, even if intentions are still the best. That is particularly true when you are involved with music and singing. This way, I know what I'm doing."

Insured Success

Miss Dietrich feels she has insured her show by inviting Orson Welles to produce it.

Film cameras will cover Miss Dietrich's opening night performance at Paris' Etoile Theater while she sings many of the songs with which she is associated—"Falling in Love Again," "The Boys in the Back Room," and her nightclub opener, "Look Me Over Closely."

"I wouldn't have agreed to it if Orson hadn't been free," she says. "Because a show like this is so to need a lot of imagination."

Actually, Miss Dietrich has signed with a TV producing company and negotiations are under way for a sponsor, who shouldn't be hard to find.

If Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell's hat-eating performance this week was any indication, what the administration now needs is Ernie Kovacs, a great practitioner of the sight gag. The cake hat made a good photograph for the newspapers, but the sight of the secretary cutting up a mocha confection while making a serious speech about the effects of the steel strike was a sight TV advisor Robert Montgomery might have vetoed.

SEEK YOUTH IN MURDER OF DIVORCEE

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Tord Ove Zeppenfeld was known as a youth with a zest for the Wild West and a quick temper. Now he is being sought for questioning in the fatal bludgeoning of a red-haired Hollywood divorcee, Lillian Lenorak.

Police said the youth—last seen wearing a denim jacket, jeans and cowboy boots—probably is armed and dangerous. He is the 21-year-old son of Vega Zeppenfeld, one-time Swedish Olympic diving and swimming champion.

He was last seen hitchhiking Saturday night near Indio. He had told police he was heading for Yuma, Ariz.

The next morning, the body of Mrs. Lenorak, 42, a shapely film cutter and ex-dancer, was found on a lonely road near this desert resort.

Investigators said they found under his mattress a sawed-off barrel from a .22-caliber rifle, matted with dried blood and bits of hair and flesh. They said the barrel fits a wooden hand grip discovered next to the woman's savagely beaten body, about two miles from the motel owned by his mother. They also found a bloodstained shirt in his room.
